National Senior Games

The National Senior Games in Houston, Texas are only 40 days away. Georgia has approximately 150 athletes registered to compete at the National Games.

Mary Alice and George Ealer from Warner Robins will be the Flag Bearers for Georgia at the Celebration of Athletes scheduled for June 21. If you are in Houston on the day of the Celebration, please support Mary Alice and George.

Good luck to all of the athletes attending and Bring Home The Gold for Georgia!

John Taylor-90 Year Old Tri-Athlete

Dr. John Taylor turned 90 years old a few weeks ago and plans to compete in the 2011 National Senior Games in Houston, Texas in Cycling and Triathlon. Dr. John will be the first athlete over 90 to do a triathlon as recorded by the USA Triathlon Association.

Dr. John is truly and inspiration to so many and plans to compete as long as he is healthy enough to do so. He has a beautiful wife, Sally, who supports him in all of his competitions and in everyday life. He always comments that Sally is his performance enhancement drug.

Dr. John competes each year in the Georgia Golden Olympics in cycling and swimming. He has been the winner of both The Ruth Gaylor Spirit Award and The Barney Ochs Sportsmanship Award! Congratulations Dr. John and bring home the Gold(s) from Houston. We are all cheering for you!!!!
